Turkish

Language of instruction; In programs in Turkish, for candidates to certify their Turkish language proficiency before registration; B2 level Turkish language proficiency certificates obtained in the last two years from Turkish education centers accepted by YÖK will be valid. Candidates with the said documents have the right to start the relevant program directly if they are accepted.

A student who is enrolled in a program whose language of instruction is Turkish and whose Turkish is insufficient is considered to be on leave from the program for one year in order to make his Turkish proficiency in the "TOMER Turkish Preparatory Program". If the student cannot reach a sufficient level of Turkish language within this period, an additional time is given for one year of Turkish Preparation. The student who is deemed to be on leave pays the tuition fee of the program in which he/she is registered. At the end of the additional period, the student who cannot make his/her Turkish level sufficient is deleted from the program in which he/she is registered.

If the candidates who do not have Turkish language proficiency at B2 level are accepted, they will be able to receive training in Turkish preparatory courses conducted at the Turkish Teaching Application and Research Center (TOMER).
